Dear New Lifer

by Pastor Bob See

God speaks to you and me and our church through a very familiar Bible passage, one often read at Christmas time:

*For to us a child is born, to us a Son is given,
and the government will be on His shoulders.
And He will be called
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.*

Isaiah 9:6

The Son is given to us – it’s the same heart of God behind the truth that “God loved the world so much that He GAVE His only Son...” God gives Jesus to be our Savior and to walk with through our lives. Look the roles He plays in our lives:

Wonderful Counselor – When we are confused and uncertain He will “counsel” us, lead and direct us.

Mighty God – When we need power to face the struggles and impossible situations in our lives, He is Mighty to save!

Everlasting Father – When our hearts are breaking and we feel all alone, He is that perfect parent who understands us and is with us forever.

Prince of Peace – when conflict fills our homes and relationships, He can lead you into calm and reconciliation.

Jesus doesn’t want to be outside your life this Christmas but active in your life, in your family and home. And what about other people in your life? This Christmas do they need Christ? The Christmas Eve service (Friday, December 24 at 7 p.m. in the Worship Center) and the next couple Sunday services will be great times to invite people to experience the love God has for them.

Thanks for reading,

Bob See
