Dear New Life Family

by Bob See

Let me share with you three developments I'm looking forward to this summer at New Life:

First, we are in the process of creating a new website. It will be more user friendly for new people (it's amazing how many people show up here because they found us online) and provide greater access for the staff to use. Plus it will have a whole new look. Be looking for the launch in the next 2-3 weeks.

Next, we are re-working the 10:30 Central service. As many of you know that service has struggled – while there are many people committed to attend that service, it's been difficult to create some growth momentum. We've considered many options on how to increase its effectiveness, everything from merging with another service to closing it, but in the end we feel 10:30 Central has a lot of outreach potential. After a lot of prayer and consulting we are planning a re-launch of the service with several improvements and changes that we think will help it grow in health and fruitfulness. Again, watch for more info later this summer.

Finally, we are working on our fall series Life's Healing Choices. This series will begin September 12 and addresses the hurts, habits, and hang-ups that each of us struggle with in our lives. It leads us to the answer of Christ's power to transform us into new people. This will have powerful for both long-time Christians and new people. I encourage you now to pray about who God would have you invite to this series. For people who don't know Christ or who have no church home, this series will be life-changing and it will be on target for people for whom a personal relationship with Jesus is a new concept; it will be very "visitor-friendly."

Two years ago when we surveyed the church and determined our goals and direction, on the top of everyone's list of priorities was the desire to reach far more new people with the gospel. Please pray for us as we seek to increase our effectiveness in this, but also pray for your role in impacting the lives of friends, family, colleagues, and classmates who need Christ – He will use you as you seek Him!

Thanks for reading!

Missing Something?

by Patrick Wright

It's that time again to purge out the church of all the lost and/or forgotten items that we have acquired over the last year. And might I say we have gathered some very interesting items that need to be removed; like a red clown suit, Pepsi carrier, and a flower stand to mention a few items, and of course we have jackets, Bibles, Tupperware dishes, trays, and a Pyrex cake pan. The next two weeks (June 27 & July 4) we will have a table set up by the front door of the Lobby in the main facility with these items on it. If any of these items are yours, please claim them on Sunday or during church office hours. All remaining items will be donated to charity after July 4.
